SUMMARY:

At approx. 0515 hrs. Carlsbad Police received an incomplete "911" call from 1485 Tara Ct. Upon the police officer's arrival, two adult females fled from the address and immediately contacted the officers. The females, (the mother and sister of the suspect) told officers that Thomas MacMillan was inside the house armed with a knife. He extremely agitated, uncontrollable and possibly under the influence of a drug. MacMillan had locked the doors to second floor residence and barricaded the entrance. Officers attempted to gain MacMillan's cooperation, but were unsuccessful. Three nearby homes were temporarily evacuated. Carlsbad Police Crisis Negotiators and SWAT officers were called to the scene.

After 3 hours of unsuccessful negotiations, SWAT forced entry to the front door. MacMillan immediately jumped through a second floor window, onto the roof and into the backyard of the residence, where he was taken into custody by SWAT officers.

MacMillan was transported to Tri-City Hospital for observation and treatment of possible drug influence.

Residents returned to their homes at approx. 0900 hrs.
